

Euro Bank Account

Fact Sheet (including Specific Conditions, Financial Services Compensation Scheme (FSCS) Information Sheet & Exclusions List)

Effective from 31 July 2023

The Euro Bank Account is a current account that offers the facility to hold euro currency and make instant transfers between this and other Cater Allen bank accounts linked to the same customer number.

This account is subject to availability and may be withdrawn from sale at any time without notice.

This is a payment account for personal customers. The table below sets out specific conditions for your account. These conditions apply as well as the personal terms.

Eligibility	You can have this account if you're 18 or over and live in the UK.
Sole or joint account	You can have an account in your sole name or jointly with up to 3 other people.
Currency	The account is only available in euros. The account can be linked with a pounds sterling or US dollar bank account that you hold with us, if opened under the same customer number.
Your interest and when we'll pay it	We don't pay interest on the account.
Taking money out	You can send money and make payments as often as you want. You can make internal transfers to any other accounts you hold with us using Internet Banking. You can also make payments externally in pounds sterling. You can't make standing orders or Direct Debit payments. You can have up to 2 debit cards for each account you hold, even if there are more than 2 joint account holders. We don't charge for everyday transactions. 'Everyday' transactions are any of the following. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◦ Cash withdrawals. ◦ Debit card payments, including recurring transactions. We may charge for any other transactions which aren't everyday. All fees are set out in the Banking Tariff. We don't charge for internal transfers between accounts you have with us. This means we won't charge you any currency conversion commission charges if you also have a pounds sterling or US dollar account with us.

Statements	We'll prepare a statement on the 27th of each month and send it to you monthly by post. You can ask us to send them less frequently or through Internet Banking.
If you change your mind	If you change your mind about this account and you want to close it, let us know. You can close your account at any time during your 'cancellation period' – we won't charge you for it. This is 14 days, starting the day after we confirmed your account is open If you do this, we'll return your money. We'll do this as soon as we can (and within 30 days from when you tell us). You can also close your account at any other time outside this cancellation period – we won't charge you.

The following information doesn't form part of our agreement with you

Our rights under our agreement with you

The personal terms set out our relationship with you and explain how your account will operate. Under those terms, we have a number of rights that you should be aware of. These include:

- Refusing or delaying payments
 - We can refuse to make a payment from your account or to accept a payment into your account for various reasons. These are set out in the personal terms and include a number of reasons related to concerns about possible scams, fraud or the security of your account.
 - We can also delay payments while we investigate. This could mean you're late in paying someone you need to pay.
 - If we remain concerned, we may refuse to make the payment even if you have checked it and confirmed you want it to go ahead.
- Blocking access to your account
 - We may block access to your account for various reasons, including if we have concerns about security or fraud. We can also block access if you don't give us information, we need from you.
 - We may retain money in your account and not pay it to you in some situations. We'll only do this if another person claims that the money belongs to them, or you don't address any concerns we have about the origin of the money.
 - We can block a third-party provider from accessing your account if we think they don't have consent or are acting fraudulently.
- Situations when we may take money out of your account
 - We can take money out of your account in a number of situations set out in the personal terms.
 - We can do this if we paid you the money by mistake or if we think you received the money from someone else by mistake and we're asked to return it.
 - We can also do it if we paid you a refund and then find out you weren't entitled to it.
 - We can take money from your account to repay amounts you owe us or another Santander company.
- Changing or ending the agreement
 - We can change the interest rate (unless it's fixed), fees or other terms at any time by giving you notice. The reasons when we can do this are set out in the personal terms.
 - We can end this agreement immediately for various reasons set out in the personal terms, including if you break the agreement, are abusive to our staff or misuse your account.

Other important information about your account

- Anyone who wants access to the account will need to fill in the personal details and authorised signatory sections of the account application form. They must also complete the account mandate, authorising the opening of the account.
- Your account balance and transactions on the account can be made available to your financial adviser or accountant in Internet Banking.
- If an account needs more than one signature to authorise transactions, accounts in Internet Banking may have 'view only' access. However, if you want more than one user to approve instructions, you'll need to give them to us in writing, through Internet Banking (as long as all users have signed up to use this service) or over the phone (if users are together). You won't be able to make payments by debit card.
- Overdrafts aren't available. If you think you may need an overdraft, this account isn't right for your needs.

Additional information

1 Scheme responsible for the protection of your eligible deposit

Your eligible deposit is covered by a statutory Deposit Guarantee Scheme. If insolvency of your bank, building society or credit union should occur, your eligible deposits would be repaid up to £85,000 by the Deposit Guarantee Scheme.

2 General limit of protection

If a covered deposit is unavailable because a bank, building society or credit union is unable to meet its financial obligations, depositors are repaid by a Deposit Guarantee Scheme. This repayment covers at maximum £85,000 per bank, building society or credit union. This means that all eligible deposits at the same bank, building society or credit union are added up in order to determine the coverage level. If, for instance a depositor holds a savings account with £80,000 and a current account with £20,000, he or she will only be repaid £85,000.

This method will also be applied if a bank, building society or credit union operates under different trading names. Cater Allen Limited also trades under the name Cater Allen Private Bank. This means that all eligible deposits with one or more of these trading names are in total covered up to £85,000. In some cases eligible deposits which are categorised as "temporary high balances" are protected above £85,000 for six months after the amount has been credited or from the moment when such eligible deposits become legally transferable. These are eligible deposits connected with certain events including:

- (a) certain transactions relating to the depositor's current or prospective only or main residence or dwelling;
- (b) a death, or the depositor's marriage or civil partnership, divorce, retirement, dismissal, redundancy or invalidity;
- (c) the payment to the depositor of insurance benefits or compensation for criminal injuries or wrongful conviction.

More information can be obtained under <http://www.fscs.org.uk>

3 Limit of protection for joint accounts

In case of joint accounts, the limit of £85,000 applies to each depositor.

However, eligible deposits in an account to which two or more persons are entitled as members of a business partnership, association or grouping of a similar nature, without legal personality, are aggregated and treated as if made by a single depositor for the purpose of calculating the limit of £85,000.

4 Reimbursement

The responsible Deposit Guarantee Scheme is the Financial Services Compensation Scheme, 10th Floor Beaufort House, 15 St Botolph Street, London, EC3A 7QU, Tel: 0800 678 1100 or 020 7741 4100, Email: ICT@fscs.org.uk. It will repay your eligible deposits (up to £85,000) within 20 working days until 31 December 2018; within 15 working days from 1 January 2019 until 31 December 2020; within 10 working days from 1 January 2021 to 31 December 2023; and within 7 working days from 1 January 2024 onwards, save where specific exceptions apply.

Where the FSCS cannot make the repayable amount available within 7 working days, it will, from 1 June 2016 until 31 December 2023, ensure that you have access to an appropriate amount of your covered deposits to cover the cost of living (in the case of a depositor which is an individual) or to cover necessary business expenses or operating costs (in the case of a depositor which is not an individual or a large company) within 5 working days of a request.

If you have not been repaid within these deadlines, you should contact the Deposit Guarantee Scheme since the time to claim reimbursement may be barred after a certain time limit. Further information can be obtained under <http://www.fscs.org.uk>.

Other Important Information

In general, all retail depositors and businesses are covered by Deposit Guarantee Schemes. Exceptions for certain deposits are stated on the website of the responsible Deposit Guarantee Scheme. Your bank, building society or credit union will also inform you of any exclusions from protection which may apply. If deposits are eligible, the bank, building society or credit union shall also confirm this on the statement of account.

EXCLUSIONS LIST

A deposit is excluded from protection if:

- (1) The holder and any beneficial owner of the deposit have never been identified in accordance with money laundering requirements. For further information, contact your bank, building society or credit union.
- (2) The deposit arises out of transactions in connection with which there has been a criminal conviction for money laundering.
- (3) It is a deposit made by a depositor which is one of the following:
 - o credit institution
 - o financial institution
 - o investment firm
 - o insurance undertaking
 - o reinsurance undertaking
 - o collective investment undertaking
 - o pension or retirement fund¹
 - o public authority, other than a small local authority
- (4) It is a deposit of a credit union to which the credit union itself is entitled.
- (5) It is a deposit which can only be proven by a financial instrument² (unless it is a savings product which is evidenced by a certificate of deposit made out to a named person and which existed in the UK, Gibraltar or a Member State of the EU on 2 July 2014).
- (6) It is a deposit of a collective investment scheme which qualifies as a small company.³
- (7) It is a deposit of an overseas financial services institution which qualifies as a small company.⁴
- (8) It is a deposit of certain regulated firms (investment firms, insurance undertakings and reinsurance undertakings) which qualify as a small business or a small company⁵ – refer to the FSCS for further information on this category.
- (9) It is not held by an establishment of a bank, building society or credit union in the UK or, in the case of a bank or building society incorporated in the UK, it is not held by an establishment in Gibraltar.

¹ Deposits by personal pension schemes, stakeholder pension schemes and occupational pension schemes of micro, small and medium sized enterprises are not excluded.

² As listed in Part I of Schedule 2 to the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, read with Part 2 of that Schedule

³ Under the Companies Act 1985 or Companies Act 2006

⁴ See footnote 3

⁵ See footnote 3
